

Accessible Toilet Survey Results

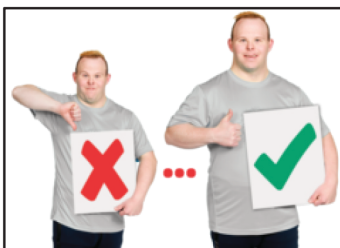

Euan's Guide is the disabled access charity.

We have the website www.EuansGuide.com.

This survey helps businesses know what disabled people think about accessible toilets.

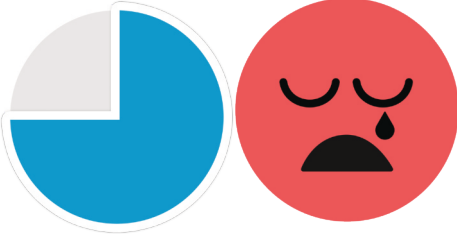

And what improvements businesses can make for disabled visitors.

These results were published in November 2020.

Lack of accessible toilets

Most avoid going somewhere that does not have an accessible toilet.

Many have found an accessible toilet they could not access.

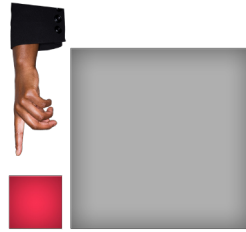

What is wrong with accessible toilets?

Ranked in order

Dirty

Too small

Messy

Hard to access and use

Missing or broken equipment

No Changing Places toilet

What is wrong with accessible toilets?

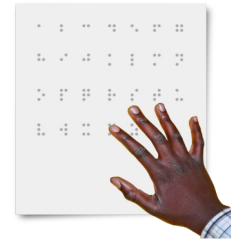

Ranked in order

Confusing signage

Lack of visual contrast

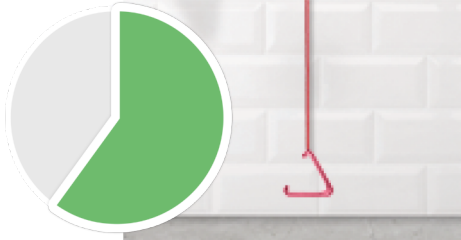

No tactile guidance

Locked

Red emergency cords

Most people see a red emergency cord that can't be used in an accessible toilet at least once a month.

Some have pulled a red emergency cord to call for help.

Red Cord Cards from Euan's Guide attach to red emergency cords to remind everyone to leave the cord in the correct position.

Strange things found in accessible toilets

Staff in a meeting

Money from the venue

Large amounts of drinks

Kitchen gadgets and cooking equipment

A trolley full of cleaning equipment

An exercise bike

Strange things found in accessible toilets

A projector

Gardening equipment

A decorated Christmas tree

DJ equipment

769 people took part in our Euan's Guide Accessible Toilet Survey.
© All Rights Reserved Euan's Guide 2020.
Euan's Guide is a charity registered in Scotland (SC045492)

Email: hello@euansguide.com

Post:
Euan's Guide
CodeBase
3 Lady Lawson Street
Edinburgh
EH3 9DR

Call: 0131 510 5106

Easy Ready symbols by:

photosymbols[®]